

West, North Paired in Grid Headliner

High on Hilltop

California's Bears plan to 'storm the hill' when they clash with top-ranked USC Saturday at the Coliseum.

"We look at it this way," said End Irby Augustine from Berkeley Wednesday. "There's USC and O. J. Simpson living up there on that hill."

"We're the guys down in the flatlands and we'll be trying to take the hill away from them."

The Bears' defensive end and all-America candidate has had considerable luck storming opposition offenses.

For instance, he was selected Associated Press Line-man of the Week after making 10 unassisted tackles, recovering a fumble and intercepting a pass in Cal's 43-0 win over Syracuse.

Augustine pointed out that the Bears, seven-point underdogs, haven't been influenced by USC's stumbling victories in its last three games.

"We believe the Trojans have been playing just well enough to win," he said. "We know they'll be up for our game because the Rose Bowl could be at stake."

The Bears have come out of the wilderness to become a national football power this season, and Augustine pointed out that team unity may have grown from disunity.

"It was a learning process and I'm happy we grew out of it. The action has made us all stronger and more unified."

Prior to transferring to Cal, Augustine attended Laney Junior College in Oakland.

"I really want to express my appreciation for the way people at Laney helped Negroes," said Augustine. "I've talked to lots of people from the press and never have said how I really feel."

"They helped us to desire more than just football. We'll be trying to repay them the rest of our lives."

There's no doubt that Augustine and the Bears will be trying to make a down payment Saturday at the Coliseum.

Uclans Face Oregon State

Can UCLA bounce back from its 24-point beating (42-18) by Tennessee against Oregon State like the Bruins did after the 24-point licking (39-15) by California?

That's the big question facing the Bruins as they return to Pacific-8 football action this Saturday at Corvallis, Ore. The powerful Beavers are 5-2 for the season and currently tied with USC for the conference lead with a spotless 3-0 record.

Oregon State, of course, will be heavy favorites to beat the Bruins, especially after the Beavers decisive 29-7 victory over Stanford last Saturday. The Bruins were soundly thrashed by the high-ranking Tennessee Volunteers in Knoxville the same afternoon.

By rolling to 42 points, the Vols scored the most points against a Tommy Prothro-coached team in the Bruin Boss' 14-year head coach career. The previous "high" were Cal's 39 markers three games ago and Stanford's 39-22 victory over Prothro's 1959 Oregon State team.

The undefeated Vols (5-0-1) simply demolished the Bruins as they rolled to 515 yards, 319 in the air and 196 on the ground, and swept to 32 first downs.

The only really bright spots for the outclassed Bruins were soph tailback Mickey Cureton's 99-yard kick-off return for a touchdown and quarterback Jim Nader's 41-yard TD "bomb" to split end Ron Copeland, both in the third quarter to make the score 35-12.

Another bright spot for the Bruins was the return to punting form of Zenon Andrusyshyn, who averaged 47.6 yards on five punts.

The Bruins also took a physical beating, with John Chrestman, soph center from San Diego, suffering a serious neck injury. He is in the intensive care ward in the University of Tennessee hospital where a spokesman said, "He is partially paralyzed from the neck down."

The Bruins are anxiously awaiting further word of Chrestman's condition. He suffered his injury while tackling the Vols' safetyman, Mike Jones, after a pass interception early in the third quarter.

Less serious injuries were sustained by soph defensive halfback Danny Graham (sprained ankle), senior split end Harold Busby (back) and junior linebacker Don Widmer (leg muscle pull, Graham, especially, appears very doubtful for the OSU game).

CIF Playoffs Are Nearing

High school football races on all levels have tightened considerably, and Southland prep buffs are watching closely to see which teams will gain berths in the 1968 CIF play-offs, which begin Nov. 22.

With only four openings for co-champions and second-place teams on the "AAAA" level and only two openings on the "AAA" level, teams which have a chance to deadlock for their league crown, or to finish second, are scrutinizing the standings to discover what chance their team might have of gaining a play-off berth.

Meanwhile, several individuals are making runs at CIF records.

Paso Robles' Henry Jenkins, a 5-8, 160-pound senior halfback, is looking towards Mickey Cureton's single-season scoring record of 240 points.

Jenkins, an explosive threat for the San Luis Obispo League leaders, has tallied 144 points through seven games, on 24 touchdowns. Although he has scored with ease, Jenkins has racked up only 737 yards on 92 carries, an 8-yard-per-carry average.

Another high-scoring Southland standout, who has the yardage figures to go along with his point output, is Blair's James McAlister. The speed-burning standout has rolled up 1,213 net yards in 139 carries, scoring 17 touchdowns and 20 PATs.

Via the aerial route, Lowell's Norm Kepner is on his way to a new CIF career passing standard. With two games remaining, Kepner needs only 339 more yards to tie the Danny Graham's career output of 3,751 yards.

Kepner has clicked on 258 of 545 passes in three years for a .475 average and 3,418 yards, scoring 21 touchdowns. He's hitting at a 179-yard-per game clip this season, and should be continue, he'll pass Graham's mark by 19 yards. His attempt and completion marks already stand as the best in Southland history.

Kepner's favorite target, split end Bob Short, has been on the receiving end of 98 passes in his three-year stint as a Patriot, 45 of them coming during the current season. He has also latched on to 11 career touchdowns.

Best 8 Drivers To Drag

If you had to pick the eight top dragster drivers in the nation, where would you go to find them?

Promoter Doug Kruse, who stages his first Drag Race of Champions Saturday night at Lions Drag Strip, Wilmington, went to Florida, Illinois, Oklahoma, and Washington. He found four men within easy commuting distance in California.

The Professional Dragster Association round robin tournament begins Saturday at Lions, moves to Carlsbad Sunday and concludes a week later at Sacramento and may prove just how good the California boys are.

The four "hometowners" are James Warren of Bakersfield, Tom McEwen of Long Beach, Don Prudhomme of Granada Hills, and John Mulligan of Garden Grove.

None of them is favored, however, as the three drag racing events feature "Big Daddy" Don Garlits of Seffner, Fla., along with Chris Karamesinos of Chicago, Steve Carbone, a transplanted Californian now racing out of Oklahoma City, and Jerry Ruth of Seattle. The tournament will make it possible to compare local talent with the visitors, because every driver will race in the same number of match races and will be rated on a point system to determine an overall winner.

Winners will continue toward the top fuel eliminator title and losers will move into the consolation matches. A point system will be used to pace them will be used to place them first through eighth.

Schumacher Fills Gap For Rams

Gregg Schumacher, junior "Fearsome" of the Rams' revamped Foursome, is fitting smoothly into Lamar Lundy's old position at right defensive end because he admires the way Deacon Jones plays the other end.

"Joining the Rams was a wonderful thing for me because it gave me a chance to study the greatest defensive end in the game," said Schumacher this week as the Rams prepared for their battle with the Falcons in Atlanta on Sunday. "I watched Jones in every game and every practice."

"Deac is the greatest because he practices the same way he plays—all out. He hits people and pursues as hard on the practice field as against Green Bay. I have tried to do the same thing, and it works. I'm more ready for a game. And don't forget, I've had quite a lot of playing time this season. That was partly due to Jones, too."

Because the Deacon was late in reporting to training camp while settling a contract dispute, Schumacher played Jones' left end position the first two pre-season games, and then filled in for Lundy, whose knee failed to hold up.

He started his first league game a month ago against the Packers and that gave him another valuable ingredient—confidence.

"I knew I was going against one of the best lines in pro football, and I think I had a pretty good day. I haven't been pushed around since."

SOUTH CEES

Steve Sampson threw two touchdown passes as the Class C football team at South High defeated Redondo, 19-0, yesterday.

Pierce Takes On El Camino

With only two games remaining, the El Camino College football team invades L. A. Pierce College Saturday at 8 p.m.

Camino has posted a 4-0 Metropolitan Conference record in comparison to Pierce's 1-3 mark. The Brahmas won their first and only Metro contest against Pasadena City College, 10-7.

Pierce's greatest asset is the unity of its defense. Head coach Jerry Perry feels his defense has become a most competent unit.

"Our defense has better pass defense, more dependable linebacking play, and a quick pursuit by the front four," Perry indicated.

The Brahmas' flanker, Mark Laughrey, leads the Metro in pass receptions. Laughrey has 38 passes for 468 yards and four TDs. The Pierce sophomore is backed up by John Griffin, who has caught 18 passes.

Pierce's aerial attack is handled by quarterback Tim Von Dulm, who has completed 74 of 144 passes for 909 yards and six TDs.

The Brahmas have several rushers, but are without a leading ground gainer. Rushing duties will be handled by Ken Broberg, Glenn Brown, Tim Schade and Mark Zaslow.

El Camino's ground-gaining crew of halfback Dave Boyd, fullback Tom Reynolds, and Ed Gilles has totaled over 50 per cent of the Warriors' offensive rushing yards.

Boyd alone has carried 127 times for 673 yards to lead the conference in rushing. The West High graduate has scored 50 points in six games.

The Warriors' aerial raid is headed by quarterback Dan Heck, who has connected on 60 of 108 passes for 1,116 yards. He has thrown for 10 TDs. Heck's main receivers are end John Featherstone and Reynolds.

Featherstone leads the pass receivers with 20 passes for 67 yards. Reynolds has brought in 19 aeriels for 317 yards.

The Warriors will play without the services of place kicker Don Ott, who broke his ankle during the Valley clash. Replacing Ott will be Aram Poladian, a freshman. Poladian is averaging between 34 and 44 yards on punts.

'Alamitos Season To Close

Los Alamitos closes out the 1968 night quarter horse racing season Monday.

The best 3-year-olds and older horses currently racing at Los Alamitos clash in the $80,000 Los Alamitos Quarter Horse Championship at 440 yards. Also on the agenda is the $6,000 Consolation for 2-year-olds that didn't quite make it for the $40,000 Juvenile Championship.

The Juvenile, slated for 400 yards, will be contested Saturday night.

Top Rockette, which posted a winning time of 17.6 seconds for 350 yards her last time out, is the horse to beat in the closing day Championship. John Kanis, who rode Duplicate Copy to victory in the $40,000 Autumn Championship last fall, will ride Top Rockette.

Expected to give her the most competition are Go Derussa Go, Mr. Rocket Bar, Toy Spur and Ettabo.

Kawahar Bar, the famed palomino that has won six races at the meeting, tops the field for the Juvenile Championship Saturday. Four Forty King, Sweetie Bar Miss and Witch Chic loom as the chief opponents.

DAVID DEACON JONES . . . Los Angeles Ram defensive end will be at Food Co. Market next Thursday from 4 to 6 p.m.

Once-Beaten Boilermakers Enter Football Playoffs

"Big Red" rates No. 1 in the Torrance Junior All-American Football Association with a record of six wins and one loss. The Pee-Wee Division, "Boilermakers" will go into league semi-finals against the Redondo Beach Pirates, whose record stands at five wins, two losses.

The Boilermakers, sponsored by the Torrance Police Association, smashed such teams as the Redondo Beach Admirals (27-0), Redondo Beach Pirates (20-0), Lomita Hawks (19-0), San Pedro Minnows (60-0), Hawthorne Stingers (33-19), Lawndale Bucs (32-6), and Carson Rebels (33-6). They suffered their only defeat to the Rolling Hills Colts (7-6).

The Boilermaker offense tallied an aggregate score of 230 points, while the defense allowed only 38 points. Touchdowns for the Boilermakers were scored by backs Don Means (15), Mike Fayette (9), Bill Salek (53), Mike Satterlee (3), Mark Blaine (2), Frank Asaro (3), and Dave Acosta (2).

The Boilermaker team was established in Pop Warner football in 1965 with 18 boys and Tom Stanley as head coach. The team decided on the name Boilermakers as the Purdue Boilermakers were the underdogs that year and were known as the "Spoilers" when they defeated Notre Dame. The team colors are red and white.

The Boilermakers' record scorecard reads: 1965, one win and seven losses; 1966, two wins, five losses and one tie; 1967, six wins, four losses; 1968, seven wins, one loss.

In the last two years Stanley has been assisted by end coach Doug Russell, back coach Bob Fayette, and line coach Norm Olsen.

Pat and Jim Long, in the capacity of team mother and father, foster the 33 boys who comprise the team.

League standing at the present time: Gardena Rainbows (7-0), Torrance Boilermakers (6-1), Redondo Beach Pirates (5-2), Torrance Oilers (5-2) and Rolling Hills Colts (5-2).

League semi-finals will be played on Sunday at 1 p.m.

The Boilermakers meet the Redondo Beach Pirates at Mira Costa High and the Gardena Rainbows meet at Leuzinger High (Lawndale) against Rolling Hills Colts.

Tartars Battle Palos Verdes

Championship-bound West High and defending champion North High oppose each other for the first time in a football game tonight when they collide at North Stadium.

Coach Fred Peterson's Warriors won their first seven games, including five in the Bay League. They have won convincingly against South, Inglewood, Hawthorne, Redondo and Mira Costa.

The championship will probably be settled next week when the Warriors take on once-beaten Santa Monica. The second place Viking (4-1) were upset by Redondo, 7-0, for their only loss. Samohi has a key outing tonight against pesky Mira Costa.

Last place in the Bay League will be decided tonight when Redondo (1-4) invades South High (0-5).

North defeated Redondo last week, 16-6, but halfback Elvin Yoshida was sidelined with an injury. It was not revealed whether or not the speedster would be available for the Saxons tonight.

North has the job of stopping the best rushing game in the Bay League, Dean Owens and Gary Hulseley are the guys the Saxons have to deal with.

TORRANCE High returns home following a successful 25-0 conquest of Morningside to tangle with Palos Verdes. Second place is at stake in the Sky League with this game.

Statistics compiled for the first seven games for Torrance show Randy Barnett has carried 75 times for 365 yards and two touchdowns. He has a 6.8 rushing average.

What has improved the Tartars' rushing game is the condition of defending against the Torrance passing attack.

Quarterback Kim Brooks has 54 completions in 134 attempts for 936 yards and five touchdowns. He has been intercepted eight times.

On the receiving end has been Mike McGuire, who has caught 25 of 50 pass attempts for 428 yards and two touchdowns.

Among 80 passes thrown against Torrance, the opposition has completed 31 passes for 280 yards with six interceptions.

Bishop Opposes CRL Foe

Co-leader Bishop Montgomery and St. Monica's clash in a Camino Real League football game tonight at Corsair Field in Santa Monica.

The Knights are tied with Serra for the CRL lead. Both have 4-1 records.

Running backs Ed Hansen and Nick Vargas of Bishop Montgomery High divided four touchdowns Friday as the Knights scored a 27-0 victory over Daniel Murphy in a Camino Real League game Friday night.

Coach George Swade's Knights are tied with the Serra with 4-1 records. Serra eliminated Fermin Lasuen from contention last week, 32-7.

The Knights will travel to St. Monica's next Friday night. Serra tangles with Mt. Carmel.

Montgomery scored following the opening kickoff against 'Murf,' but the 7-0 score stood until second half when the game was broken open with three more touchdowns.

Hansen, who gained 119 yards, scored twice from the 2 yard line. Vargas had touchdown runs of 15 and 13 yards.

For the first time Quarterback Greg Collins did not throw a touchdown pass, but he had nine completions in 16 tries.

Lasuen led Serra, 7-0, after the first quarter, but the Cavaliers rallied for two touchdowns in both the second and third periods.

Crespi recovered from a 'dry spell' to overwhelm Mt. Carmel, 28-7, while St. Bernard's was tied by St. Monica's, 6-6.

Montgomery . . . 7 0 6 14-27
Murphy 0 0 0 0-0
Montgomery TDs — Hansen (2 and 2 yd. runs), Vargas (15 and 13 yd. runs); PATs — Haren (3 kicks).

Four Clinics Scheduled for

Basketball Refs

A basketball officials clinic, sponsored by Gardena and Torrance Recreation and Parks Department, will be held at the Gardena community center, 1651 W. 162nd Street, Gardena, starting Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.

The clinic, instructed by Duff Means, will be held for three weeks. A fourth session, Mechanics of Officiation, will be Wednesday, Dec. 4, at a gym in Torrance.

A fee of $4.50, to cover cost of books and printed materials, will be charged each person attending the clinic and is payable at first class session.

Those completing the clinic will be certified by the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation (SCMAF) as basketball officials. A list of certified officials will be mailed to local municipalities.

Advance registration is necessary so officials kits may be ordered.

Contacts are Les Phillips, Gardena Recreation and Parks Department, 327-0220, Ext. 242, or Allen Shall, Torrance Recreation Department, FA 8-5310, Ext. 244, on or before Tuesday, Nov. 12.
